

Student Representative sought for the

Regional Studies Association Board

An exciting opportunity has arisen for an enthusiastic PhD student to join the Regional Studies Association Board in the role of student representative.

The appointment is annual and is open to student members of the Regional Studies Association (students can join the Association and apply for the post at the same time).

The successful candidate will be involved and participate not only in the discussion and exchanges among the Board members at their (normally) four meetings per annum but will be expected to participate with them in the delivery of the Associations aims and objects. This post is an observer post on the Board and carries no right to vote.

Reasonable travel and accommodation expenses will be covered by the Association to attend the meetings.

Deadline for applications is 13th January 2012, please send your CV and a short statement (max 400 words) to Auréliane Beauclair - aureliane.beauclair@regionalstudies.org. The successful candidate will be notified by 3rd February 2012.

The Board meetings planned for 2012 are taking place on:

- 27th January, London, UK
- 23rd June, Beijing, China
- 14th September, London
- 22nd November London

Before applying for this position make sure that you have no other conflicting appointments in your agenda.
